DEIB (Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging) and Professional Responsibility, Perfect Together (Diversity)

Paulette Brown is an American attorney, former judge and AmLaw 100 partner, and past President of the American Bar Association. During her term, she was instrumental in advancing numerous policy changes relating to DEIB, including an amendment to the Model Rules of Professional Responsibility, Model Jury Instructions, CLE policy and the implications that followed. This presentation will explore why embracing both DEI and Professional Responsibility, particularly for young lawyers, are essential for success.

Speaker: Paulette Brown, Esq., Founder & Principle, MindSetPower LLC, Charleston, SC

SESSION 1

2:15 - 3:00 p.m.

The Ethics of Personal Conflicts (Ethics)

We all navigate complex relationships with those we practice with and practice for, including the long-time opposing counsel, the purportedly amorous client, or the law school friend turned judge. The panel will examine the interconnection of ABA Model Rules 1.0, 1.7, 1.8, 1.16 and related comments alongside the ABA Ethics Opinion 494 and the relevant state Advisory Opinions that all provide direction and considerations when addressing those personal conflicts. Learn what preventative measures one can take to avoid impropriety, conflict, and the potential professional disaster that can arise from those close personal relationships.

Speakers:

Whittney Dunn, Esq., Senior Risk Manager, The Bar Plan, St. Louis, MO
Alyssa Johnson, Esq., Senior Counsel, Barron & Newburger, P.C., Milwaukee, WI
Carl Marsh, Esq., Assistant Vice President of Claims, OBLIC, Columbus, OH

Who IS This LLOYD Bloke? Demystifying Lloyd's of London & Other Things To Know When Acting as Claims Counsel

Lloyd's of London offers custom made insurance solutions for unusual and complicated risks, including legal malpractice risks. Unlike many insurance brands, Lloyd's of London is not a company, but instead a marketplace comprised of almost 100 syndicates that underwrite insurance business. Because many large insurance programs include Lloyd insurers, it's important to know how they operate when acting as claims counsel.

Learn about the history and structure of the Lloyd's Marketplace, its role in the legal malpractice insurance marketplace and the types of policies it writes, and who can do business at Lloyd's. Learn whether your law firm could or should do business with one or some of the syndicates, either as a client or as defense counsel.

Speakers:

Eileen Garczynski, Esq., Equity Partner & Senior. V. P., Ames & Gough, McLean, VA
Craig Giometti, Esq., Partner, Dentons US LLP, Houston, TX
